Innovate, explore

La colombine is our brand which allows us to offer you different, experimental, original wines, but also to complete our range of chateau wines by buying grapes and to offer you white wines that I vinify in collaboration with winemakers who share the same values.

Organic and Vegan at least

All the wines of the colombine are made from organic and vegan certified wine.

The vintages are elaborated by us or in collaboration with partner winegrowers who share our same values.

Natural after all

La colombine is the place of experimentation, of original vinification, each cuvée has its history.

We will be surprise

We will always offer you surprising things, wines that go beyond the standards of the appellations or what you make of them. All the wines are certified organic at least and Vegan.
